

INTRODUCTION TO THE AIM

(Accelerative Integrated Methodology)

TUESDAY, November 15th, 2016

Please consider the following questions:

- Would you like to see your students emotionally engaged in your language classroom, while speaking in French or Spanish (or the target language) all of the time?
- Would you like your students to achieve working proficiency in 100 to 150 hours of instruction?

If your answer to one or all of these questions is “YES”, we hope you will attend this FREE upcoming AIM Language Learning workshop!

In this session, you will explore how to have FUN while you learn how AIM creates astounding results for all students. You will see how engaging classroom strategies blend with language acquisition theories and brain-based learning.

Pizza and refreshments will be provided and you will receive a French music CD by the Juno-nominated artist, Matt Maxwell.

Darcy Stetz (B.P.E., B.Ed.) began teaching secondary physical education in 1995. While job-sharing a Grade 4 class with his wife in 2005, he was introduced to Wendy Maxwell’s AIM program for teaching FSL for the first time. After teaching FSL to his homeroom for 3 years with AIM, he moved to Beddington Heights school to teach Grade 4 and 5 FSL as a specialist. In 2012, Darcy took the AIM methodology to the Colonel Sanders Traditional Learning Centre where he currently teaches FSL for Grades 1-4. He completed the Wendy Maxwell Accelerative Integrated Method Teaching French, Part 1 in Montreal in 2006 and looks forward to commencing his full AIM certification in the fall.
